Article 2 : La signalisation réglementaire conforme aux dispositions de l'Instruction Interministérielle sur la signalisation routière sera mise en place par le demandeur.

Article 3 - Voies de recours :

Tout recours contentieux contre le présent arrêté peut être formé auprès du Tribunal Administratif de Besançon dans les deux mois suivant la publicité de l'arrêté.

Article 4 : M. le Directeur Général des Services de la Ville de Besançon est chargé de l'exécution du présent arrêté qui sera publié au registre des arrêtés sur le site internet de la Ville conformément à la réglementation en vigueur.

Besançon, le 6 JAN. 2025

Pour la Maire,
Par délégation,

Marie ZEHAF

Conseillère Municipale Déléguée

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the use of statistical techniques to identify trends and anomalies in the data, and the importance of using reliable sources of information.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in the process. It explains that the auditor's primary responsibility is to provide an independent and objective assessment of the financial statements. This involves a thorough review of the records and a comparison of the results with the applicable accounting standards.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of transparency and accountability in the financial system. It notes that the public has a right to know how their money is being spent, and that this information should be made available in a clear and accessible format.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the role of the government in the financial system. It explains that the government has a responsibility to ensure that the financial system is stable and that the interests of the public are protected. This involves a variety of measures, including the regulation of financial institutions and the monitoring of the money supply.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of international cooperation in the financial system. It notes that the global nature of the financial system requires a coordinated effort from all countries to ensure its stability and integrity. This involves the exchange of information and the development of common standards and practices.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of education and training in the financial system. It explains that a well-educated and trained workforce is essential for the effective operation of the financial system. This involves providing opportunities for ongoing education and training for all participants in the system.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of innovation and technology in the financial system. It notes that the rapid pace of technological change is transforming the financial system, and that it is essential to embrace these changes in order to remain competitive and efficient. This involves investing in research and development and promoting the use of new technologies.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of risk management in the financial system. It explains that the financial system is inherently risky, and that it is essential to identify and manage these risks in order to prevent a crisis. This involves the development of risk management frameworks and the implementation of effective risk management practices.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of consumer protection in the financial system. It notes that consumers are often vulnerable to fraud and other forms of abuse, and that it is essential to provide them with the information and tools they need to make informed decisions. This involves the development of consumer protection laws and the implementation of effective consumer protection measures.
